A crazy concoction of Riesling & Viognier, with a bit of Sauv Blanc, Pinot Gris and Gewurztraminer thrown in for good measure. All except the Sauv Blanc are fermented on skins. Multiple picks, mad ferments, all equalling one mind-bendingly and outrageously delicious wine.

Producer focus - Littorai:

Littorai is one of the most important producers of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir in the United States. It is the brainchild of Ted Lemon and is dedicated to making wine from fruit sourced only from the western Sonoma and Mendocino Counties. The main focus is on making single-vineyard wines that express the individual characteristics of the site.

The estate was established in 1993 after Lemon returned to the US having learned his trade in Burgundy working for a range of producers including Dujac, de Villaine (DRC), Roumier, Bruno Clair and Parent before being appointed winemaker (the first American ever) at famous Meursault producer, Domaine Guy Roulot. Predictably then, his winemaking style takes its lead directly from Burgundy and follows a reasonably straight-forward and non-interventionist approach.

2018 Thomas Wines - Elenay - Hunter Valley, NSW 150

Deep purple-garnet in colour, the wine is vibrantly aromatic in its primary fruit and perfume. It shows great concentration of dark berried fruits, with a taut tannin profile that extends right through the length of the palate. The wine feels svelte in the mouth, tightly wound, and with a decant or time in the glass shows even more of its seductive personality. Definitely slightly overt in the (premium French) oak department. Drinking awesome now.

Elegant, and with a silky luxuriousness, the nose leads effortlessly onto the beautifully poised palate that delivers a wine of almost unexpected structure and focus. Savoury and sappy, yet generously fleshy, the mid-palate demands attention as it builds through the fine tannin core towards a long and expansive finish. A wine of structure and finesse.
